A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (b) as being anticipated by Nemoto

The inner well is shown along a length of the periphery of the base has an outer wall coupled to the inner wall of the outer well. The outer well or adjacent pocket is shown extending along the length of the periphery of the inner well. And a chip 8 is shown positioned on the base and is deemed to be removable by removing means such as manually. Figure 5 shows the chip formed above the base and below an upper surface 3. The thinness of the tray is taught in col. 1 thereby rendering Flexibility.
